Press Release

15/02/10

Nottingham fiction publisher Weather vane Press announces the forthcoming publication on 19/03/2010 of their latest novel:

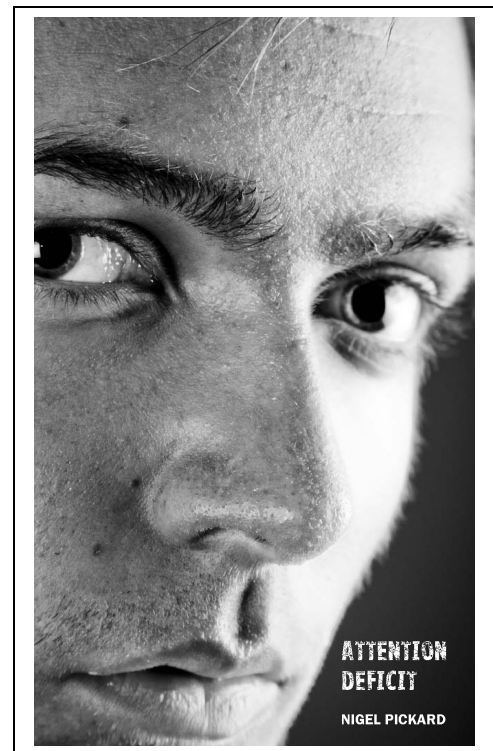

ATTENTION DEFICIT

the brilliant second novel by Nottingham writer
NIGEL PICKARD

Attention Deficit, the story of a teacher in one of our toughest comprehensives, is about far more than education, as the parallel narratives of Harry, the teacher and Lewis, an excluded student on his final last chance, reveal.

Nigel Pickard's intelligent prose is always utterly convincing.

Attention Deficit is a fast-paced, provocative and, at times, very funny exploration of what happens when your life begins to get away from you.

'Attention Deficit' is Nigel Pickard's second novel. The much acclaimed 'One' was published by Bookcase Editions in 2005.

Attention Deficit - Fiction paperback. £7.99 ISBN 978 0 9562193 5 0
