

Weather vane Press

Press Release

04/01/10

Nottingham fiction publisher Weather vane Press announces the forthcoming publication on 23/01/10 of their latest novel:

THE DAWNING

A dark and mysterious domestic thriller set in the Peak District;
the stunning second novel by Nottingham writer

MEGAN TAYLOR

It is New Year's Eve, a time for fresh beginnings – but for each member of the fragmenting Haywood family, this night could mark the end.

Set against a backdrop of wintry beauty on the edge of a Peak District town, 'The Dawning' explores the danger that can arise, even at the heart of a family, over the course of one dark night.

'The Dawning' is Megan Taylor's second novel.

'How We Were Lost' was published by Flame Books in 2007.

Both novels demonstrate her ability to create characters we believe in and care about, and bring them vibrantly to life on the page.

'The Dawning' - Fiction paperback. £7.99 ISBN 978 0 9562193 4 3

Available from: www.weather vane press.co.uk